👤 Why Your Player Profile Matters

Your Player Profile is your football introduction.

Before a manager watches you play or speaks to you, they want to quickly understand who you are, where you play and what you can offer.

A professional Player Profile allows clubs, coaches and scouts to build a picture of you in just a few minutes.

Done well, it can help create opportunities before you've even stepped onto the pitch.

⚽ More Than Just A Football CV

Many players think their Football CV is enough. A Player Profile is different. It tells your story.

It explains:

- What type of player you are
- Your strengths
- Your playing style
- Your football journey
- Your ambitions
- Where you want to go next

Think of your CV as your career history. Think of your Player Profile as your football identity.

📝 What Makes A Good Player Profile?

A good profile should be:

- Honest
- Professional
- Easy to read
- Up to date
- Relevant

Include information such as:

- Personal details
- Playing position
- Preferred foot
- Current and previous clubs
- Playing style
- Strengths
- Areas for improvement
- Career highlights
- Football ambitions
- Highlight video
- Contact details

⚠️ Common Mistakes

Avoid:

- Making it too long
- Exaggerating your achievements
- Using outdated information
- Leaving out contact details
- Forgetting to include your highlight video

Managers appreciate professionalism and honesty.

💡 NLN Tip

Your profile should evolve with your football.

Update it throughout the season with new clubs, achievements, videos and experiences.

Keeping it current means you're always ready when an opportunity appears.

🎯 Your Challenge

Create your Player Profile today.

Ask yourself:

☐ Does it represent me accurately?
☐ Would a manager understand what type of player I am?
☐ Is all my information current?
☐ Would I feel confident sending this to a club today?
